

Please do not allow banks or any other insitutions access to people's phone numbers. Besides being an invasion of privacy, it is a hazard for the elderly, those careing for children, etc. to "run" to answer the phone, only to have it telemarketing. Lives are so cluttered now, we hardly need further invasion from unwanted things.